ABAN Picnic at Tiger Lily and Visit to Bindabasini Temple, Biruwa

ABAN Picnikers enjoying the temple visit by the jungle

ABAN Life Members and their family and friends joined the picnic on May 5, 2018 at Tiger Lily resort Sirutar, Bhaktapur. The picnickers enjoyed the clean green environment of Tiger Lily Petting Farm & Hands on Museum, jungle hike to Bindabashini and Shiva temples in Buruwa and Anantalingeswor.

Tiger Lily is a petting zoo for school age kids and family, designed to expose city kids the role of farming, seeds, country tools, machines and domestic animals including horse riding. Mr. Rajendra Uprety started the facility since January 2016, spread over 10 ropanis of land at an investment of Rs.10 million. Many school children frequent this facility as a learning center.

Uprety, a Biomedical Devise Inspector from Michigan. He returned to Nepal and set up Tiger Lily Petting farm in Sirutar, Bhaktapur. In the last 3 years, students and teachers from 500 plus schools have visited to see this simple but educative resort....I encourage all to visit this place with friends and family. A perfect example of what an NRN can do back in his/her country."

Call for Application for ISA 2018-19

The British Council Nepal and the Government of Nepal, Department of Education announces submission of expression of interest from schools in Nepal to participate in the International Schools Award (ISA) for 2018-19. Schools from across Nepal meeting the eligibility criteria can download the application form and procedure from the download section to participate in the ISA.

What is International School Award (ISA)?

ISA is a yearly award given to participating schools. Applications from interested schools are called in every year, August/September period and schools are selected on the basis of their application. The British Council offers the ISA as an accreditation framework for schools to record and evaluate their international work and embed it into the curriculum. ISA acts as a benchmark that ascertains schools as having an outstanding level of support for:

- Nurturing global citizenship in young people,
- Enriching teaching and learning

The ISA approach to school development is holistic and mirrors the curriculum based project work approach to encourage the teachers to use with their students. It is rigorous and evidence based process. It encourages the leaders to foster teambuilding, innovation, and project management. ISA gives context to practice new skills in Information and Communications Technology (ICT) and pedagogy in a safe and structured manner. Participating in briefings and workshops, online community and the award ceremony brings together a large number of schools across the country fostering rich exchange of ideas and creating a vibrant community of education professionals.

Evaluation process

Representatives from the British Council, Department of Education and Curriculum Development Centre evaluate the portfolio of evidence submitted by the participating schools and visit schools to see the authenticity of the work and learning outcomes in the children. With the evidences submitted and the school visits, the schools are granted the award.

Ambassador Dr. Subedi Addresses Nepali Students in London

Nepal's ambassador to United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland HE Dr. Durga Bahadur Subedi addressed young Nepali students visiting UK on a cultural exchange program in London recently. Dr. Subedi is 20th Nepali ambassador in UK since September 29, 2016 and is the Life Member of ABAN since October 27, 2017.

The diplomatic relations between Nepal and UK was started soon after the 1816 treaty of Sugauli. UK is one of the biggest bilateral development partner of Nepal. The relation has extended up to people to people level as Mount Sagarmatha, the world's highest peak in Nepal was first climbed by a British.

ABAN General Secretary Mr. Uttam Pant took a group of students from Galaxy, St. Xavier, LRI and other schools to UK to expose them with British educational, cultural and historic traditions as a good foundation for shaping their future.
