English and IT for Adolescents

English and IT for Adolescents (EITA) project launched in 2012 has now further developed into English and Digital for Girls' Education (EDGE), which aims to improve the life prospects of adolescent girls in socio-economically marginalised communities in Bangladesh, India and Nepal.

The programme focused on enhancing participants' English proficiency, digital skills and awareness of social issues. As a result, they were able to make more informed and independent life choices, as is their right, in order to contribute more fully to the family, the economy and society.

This year British Council Nepal and VSO Nepal have signed a 4 year contract to implement British Council's English and Digital for Girls' Education (EDGE) programme as part of VSO's wider Sisters for Sisters' Education II project.

Sisters for Sisters' Education II (SfSE-II) project is funded by DFID's Girls' Education Challenge Transition Window (GEC T) and builds on the achievements of phase I (2013 – 2017).

The project will work in 48 schools across four districts targeting 17220 adolescent girls. Two local NGOs are also in the SfSE-II consortium: Global Action Nepal and Aasaman Nepal will be supporting implementation across the 4 districts. EDGE in SfSE-II contributes to intermediate outcome 2- Increased self-esteem and empowerment of girls. The project will use the regional EDGE club model and resources with some local adaptations to enhance participants' English proficiency, digital skills and social / life skills.
